BY THE PEOPLE

Let us cherish in our hearts those undying words of Abraham Lincoln, the first American to reach the lonely heights of immortal fame.

Take his message, carry it and proclaim it broadcast throughout the Nation help our people to realize the patriotic duty resting upon them, each and all, as free-born citizens of this great democracy. Let them highly resolve that "government of the people, by the people, and for the people" shall not perish from the earth."

Lincoln's Superb Command of English Language

Lyman Trumbull's Spontaneous Tribute to his Leader.

Addressing the house of representatives of the American Congress on a special occasion Representative Fees said:

"Who is this man, that he could thus speak and write? Born in a hut in Kentucky, at the age of 7, he accompanied his parents and sister to Indiana; where they lived one winter in an open camp with but three sides to it. And yet without having gone to school more than six months all told, according to his own statement, here is a man, thus starting with no convenience, who has reached a plane, an ability to speak the English Language not reached by any of the scholars of his day.

Where is the secret? I think that it might be found in the sort of books he read. The One book with which he was quite familiar was King James' version of the Bible. I once heard Park Coleman, pastor of the greatest Congregational Church in the world, say: Abraham Lincoln's verbal knowledge of the Bible was not equalled by the theologians. I would not say that upon my own authority but cite it upon his authority.

He knew Shakespeare and in the darkest hour of the nation, in the midst of great depression often when the Cabinet was in session Mr. Lincoln would quote page after page of Shakespeare, until the scholarly Seward himself well known for his admiration of and knowledge of the "Immortal William", unable to control his admiration would turn to the president and say: "Mr. President our understanding has been that you have never gone to school and yet you quote Shakespeare as I do not, and I am regarded somewhat as a Shakesperian Scholar".

"Banyan's Pilgrims Progress" was another book that Lincoln read. Feed a growing mind upon the English of these texts and you will have choice English.

Custom Will Not Down.

Custom has decreed that on St. Valentine's day persons of the opposite sex should exchange affectionate missives, and custom is more potent than any other authority known to man.

The Shot Heard Round the World

BOY SCOUTS

(Conducted by National Council of the Boy Scouts of America.)

SCOUTS UNDERSTAND BOYS.

A while ago a scout in an eastern city got into mischief of some sort or other and was being rather severely handled. Chief Scout Executive West found time to take a personal interest in the case. That he was successful is shown by what the scout's father says and what the scout himself says:

"If there ever was a concrete illustration of the good that can be done a boy through an understanding of boy nature this is such a one. Your consideration and encouragement at a time when everyone seemed bent on destroying his future because of a boyish prank have had wonderful results. He came back from the school imbued with those ideas that lead to good citizenship, filled with a desire to advance and exceedingly grateful to you for moral support in the hour of need."

"Well, dad, when I had my little trouble up home everybody seemed bent on kicking me down, and I wondered whether I had better run away or jump in the river. Then you and Mr. West stood by me, and when I got to the school I began to think it over. I made up my mind that I would make good to the men who stood by me. After talking with many boys I found that I was about the only one who ever got any kind of encouragement from anybody and concluded that I was a lucky chap. Now I feel that I owe it to you and Mr. West to make good, and I will."

SEA SCOUTS WERE PREPARED.

When England went to war with Germany on the fourth of August, 1914, the British sea scouts were collected in large numbers for some sea scouting practices and the regatta in the Isle of Wight. So they were all ready, with their camp equipment and kit, with their trek carts and boats, prepared to go anywhere.

Without a moment's delay, therefore, they were able to respond to the call of the admiralty and to proceed at once to different coastguard stations around Great Britain and to take over the duties of the coast guardsmen who were immediately mobilized for service afloat.

Their organization in patrols, each under its patrol leader, was exactly what was wanted for manning the different coastguard stations. The boys all knew how to signal, how to cook their own food, how to manage boats, how to swim, how to keep order and how to obey the orders of their leaders, so that they were already trained for the service on which they were employed.

Therein lies the value of carrying out in practice the scout motto "Be Prepared."

NATIONALISM IS SCOUT AIM.

The fundamental law of scouting is that scouts shall "do a good turn every day." The most important point of the oath is that he shall help other people at all times.

In that way he is putting a hole into individualism; he is warring on selfishness. We have the boy able to help, and when a boy is able to help and has been shown what helping is, he helps.

We are looking for the boy who helps together with the person who has been helped, and we are creating in the American boy that one quality which is so needed today—solidarity.

We are trying to make the people interlock. They won't interlock in 25 minutes or 25 years, but this is the first step of real nationalism; teaching the boy fair play, cutting down the edge of his extreme individualism, teaching him how he can do some real thing for somebody else.

BLIND SCOUT PICKS BERRIES.

That blindness is no handicap to patriotism has been proved by a twelve-year-old Berkeley blind boy, who for two months worked side by side with seeing lads in the berry fields near Decoto, Cal.

The lad, "Billy" Swan, a student at California School for the Blind, accompanied some 50 or more Berkeley boy scouts into the berry fields and put in eight hours of hard work six days out of every seven since then. "Billy" earned enough money to pay his own expenses and to contribute to the support of his mother.

Approximately 3,000 boxes of raspberries have been picked by the young workers.

When the Lid is Off

"I tell you, Bill, when you take a wife you just go it blind, as the sayin' is."

"Sure thing! As the wise guy remarked, you never know whether you married a peach or a lemon until the first family jar is opened."

Fir Seeds to Help Reforest France

Bag in Hands of Secretary of American Forestry Association Estimated to Contain 50,000 Trees

P. S. Ridsdale, secretary of the American Forestry Association, on his way to France with all the Douglas fir seeds the association could find in the American market. Mr. Ridsdale figures there are 50,000 trees in the bag he carries, and he will ask French officials to tell him what other kinds of seed they want with which to reforest France. As soon as he returns the association will start a campaign to procure the needed seeds. Douglas fir was the first variety asked for, and a scarcity of this kind was immediately discovered.

UKRAINIAN YEAR BOOKS

Publications Have Wider Circulation Than Newspapers

The yearbooks published by the Ukrainians in the United States and Canada are highly important features of their household libraries, according to the committee on public information. The Ukrainians do not publish any illustrated magazines in this country but issue a number of paper-covered annuals dealing with an enormous number of subjects and filled with pictures.

Thus one of the most recent Ukrainian almanacs, which is just off the press, contains articles on airplanes, agriculture, politics, international relations, music, wireless telegraphy and travel. And this is only the beginning. There is one article about Woodrow Wilson, accompanied by a picture of the president and quotations from some of his memorable speeches. These yearbooks, of which there are about ten, have a wider circulation than the Ukrainian newspapers and one or more of them is pretty sure to be found even in the humblest Ukrainian household.

English Writer Tells About Films That Actually Talk—Latest Edison Invention

Thomas Alva Edison, in his wonderful new invention, has given us pictures that not only move but talk, relates a London correspondent. The kinetophone and the phonograph, and its effects are weirdly realistic. The machine is so constructed that the sounds of the voices of the actors in the picture drama are reproduced in the most natural way. When figures appear to be walking toward the front of the stage their voices get louder as they get nearer to the audience, and softer as they retreat. When a plate is smashed the noise of broken crockery is distinctly heard. The notes of the piano or violin are reproduced when the actor plays on one of these instruments, the expression and time being clearly marked. Whistling, singing, opening and shutting doors, etc., are all heard.

Talking pictures are also to be seen in a similar invention, the kinoplastikon. The effects here are most wonderful. Dancers come from the wings, perform and sing, and retire to the wings again, and after applause come and bow their acknowledgments to the audience in a real theater in almost complete, for the figures do almost everything that a living artist can do.

Scarcity of Scythes.

Before the war Russia's need of scythes was estimated at 6,000,000 annually, of which about half were required in Siberia. To fill these requirements about 4,000,000 scythes were imported annually and the remainder manufactured in Russia. According to latest information there are hardly any scythes to be found, Russian industry being at a standstill and the importation closed.

Farmer Turns Sandy Tract of Land Into Flourishing Forest Within Few Years

England and Scotland are preparing to replant forests which have been cut to provide war supplies. They are doing it now. Never before have those countries been so bare of timber. Hunting ranges and sporting grounds have been sacrificed to supply munition factories at home and armies abroad. The old forests were primarily ornamental and incidentally useful, but those which are now being deliberately provided for will be primarily useful and incidentally ornamental, says Popular Mechanics Magazine.

In the United States we are not in so much need of tree planting as they are in the British Isles. But there are two kinds of timber which the war demand has greatly depleted, and they are kinds of much importance, locust and black walnut.

There is another point to be considered in the planting of these trees: They can be grown on sandy tracts of land which are now considered of no value, and thus reclaim this land.

An excellent illustration of what can be accomplished in the way of reclaiming useless land through the planting of trees has been carried out during the last six or eight years by a resident of Whiteside county, Illinois. In these years he has accomplished the seemingly impossible task of turning some 70 acres of sand, formerly as barren as the desert of Sahara, into a flourishing forest. Nor is that all; for this forest, acting as a sand binder, has been the means of saving other fertile acres from the inroads of the drifting sand, the total result being that the farm has increased several times in value. The sandy tracts, which, before being planted to trees, were practically worthless, are now worth anywhere from $50 to $100 an acre.

SHORT AND SNAPPY

The keen edged proverb is a crosscut saw.

It's a wise man who shapes his plans to fit the inevitable.

The rule of love is usually more effective than the rule of might.

Second thoughts are best, unless they happen to be second-hand thoughts.

Hope makes a man believe that something will happen which he knows will not.

The man who thinks he knows it all usually marries a woman who can teach him a lot more.

Man's Work Should Provide Happiness and Peace of Mind

A man's work should always mean more to him than a mere means of livelihood. He should draw from it happiness, contentment, peace of mind. This he can do only if he looks upon his work as contributing something worth while to the lives of his fellow men. For men are so built that the consciousness of rendering service is an instinctive need of their being. Those who have not this consciousness are certain to be unhappy, whether they do not work at all or work up to the limit of their powers and whether the monetary return from their work is small or great.

IF HE CAME NOW

If he came now!
My heart would be like a once quiet street,
Hung with gay lanterns on a fete night,
Wild with singing! And my heart would be a child
Sleepily waking to a kiss, then flinging
Sleep from it, springing
With all too ready feet,
Out of the night, into the world again,
And finding that its toys were all once more
There where it left them, waiting on the floor.
To be played with again. My heart would be
An opened book filled full with witchery,
Filled, too, with pain,
An opened book that had been left too long
Upon a dusty shelf. It would be a song
In a young mouth. And it would be buds, Too, opening under the moon, and shivering at the dew,
But liking it. And it would be a flame,
Red in the night. I used to be glad when he came,
But not so very glad—because I thought
That I would always have him. Then war caught
Him up from me, and bore him out
To be where danger is; and killed my doubt,
My hesitation and half fears. Ah, now
I would run to welcome him, if he came now!
—Mary Coralyn Davis, in Good House-keeping.

Hogs Contract Colds and Pneumonia—Caution Urged

Trouble often develops among hogs at this season of the year in the form of cold and pneumonia, according to Dr. Robert Graham, professor of animal pathology at the University of Illinois. Doctor Graham gives warning that when pigs of all ages and sizes are allowed to pile up at night in a warm shed some are likely to come out steaming in the morning and that the cold winds and frosty atmosphere will have a bad effect on them. He recommends the following precautions: Hog houses and feeding places, runways, fences and sheds, should be thoroughly cleaned and sprayed with a 3 per cent water solution of compound of cresol (U. S. P.) or its recognized equivalent. Quicklime should be scattered freely about the lots, after they have been raked clean of cobs and manure. Wallows should be drained and fenced off, all small holes filled and large fields where the infection prevails should be cultivated.

HINTS FOR THE POULTRY GROWER

Small eggs, dirty eggs, old eggs or eggs which have been kept at a high temperature for any length of time are the kinds not to select for incubation, according to a circular prepared by the poultry husbandry department of the Kansas State Agricultural college. Not all eggs from the best breeding stock are good for hatching purposes. Often the eggs are small, uneven in shape or poor in shell texture. Small eggs should never be incubated, as they do not hatch well, and pullets from them often lay under-sized eggs. The small egg is not wanted upon the market. The two ounce egg is the standard in weight.

Only clean eggs should be selected for incubation. Dirty or washed eggs never hatch as well as do those which have never been soiled.

Since the egg begins to incubate when it reaches a temperature of 68 degrees it should be kept below that point. From 45 to 65 degrees is the range of temperature permissible for eggs that are being kept for hatching.

Eggs should not be kept any longer than is absolutely necessary. If they are turned frequently and are kept at the correct temperature they may be kept for two weeks before being placed in the incubator, but it is not advisable to try to keep them for that long a time.

Explorer Says North Pole Weather Not as Pictured

Another cherished illusion is dispelled and relegated to the junk heap of vivid misconceptions that have suddenly faded. Explorer Vilhjalmur Stefansson, who has just returned from a five years' cruise in the regions around the North pole, tells us that the weather up there is by no means the frigid terror we have pictured in our minds. It is much cooler in central Siberia than at Herschel Island. Even near the geographical pole the climate never gets really bad, although the mercury occasionally runs down to 60 below zero. Indeed, it was so mild and comfortable with physical comfort that he usually disrobed on the porch of his igloo and passed the evening in his underwear, resting at night in his sleeping bag. His underwear, by the way, was of reindeer's skin with the fur inside. He has explored about 250,000 square miles amid all kinds of weather, and claims to have suffered no hardships, until his return to civilization.—Christian Herald.

Arizona Is Cleaning Out Beasts Which Kill Stock

One of the efforts of the state government of Arizona and the federal government in their campaign for the eradication of predatory animals, which cause large losses in range stock, is the employment of skilled hunters. Thirteen are now in the employ of the state and federal governments. Other men are exterminating rodents which destroy ranges. One of the hunters within two months killed 11 mountain lions. Another killed 55 coyotes within a month.

CALOMEL MAKES YOU SICK. UGH!

"Dodson's Liver Tone" better than calomel and can not salivate.

Calomel loses you a day! You know what calomel is. It's mercury; quicksilver. Calomel is dangerous. It crashes into your bile like dynamite, cramping and sickening you. Calomel attacks the bones and should never be put into your system.

When you feel bilious, sluggish, constipated and all knocked out and believe you need a dose of dangerous calomel, just remember that your druggist sells for a few cents a large bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone, which is entirely vegetable and pleasant to take and is a perfect substitute for calomel. It is guaranteed to start your liver without stirring you up inside, and can not salivate.

Don't take calomel! It makes you sick the next day; it loses you a day's work. Dodson's Liver Tone straightens you right up and you feel great. Give it to the children because it is perfectly harmless and doesn't gripe.—Adv.

"Saving Trouble

For four consecutive nights the hotel man had watched his fair, timid guest fill her pitcher at the water cooler.

"Madam," he said on the fifth night, "if you would ring, this would be done for you."

"But where is my bell?" asked the lady.

"The bell is beside your bed," replied the proprietor.

"That the bell!" she exclaimed.

"Why the boy told me that was the fire alarm and that I was not to touch it on any account!"

It Works! Try It

Tells how to loosen a sore, tender corn so it lifts out without pain.

No humbug! Any corn, whether hard, soft or between the toes, will loosen, right up and lift out, without a particle of pain or soreness.

This drug is called freezone and is a compound of ether discovered by a Cincinnati man.

Ask at any drug store for a small bottle of freezone, which will cost but a trifle, but is sufficient to rid one's feet of every corn or callus.

Put a few drops directly upon any tender, aching corn or callus. Instantly the soreness disappears and shortly the corn or callus will loosen and can be lifted off with the fingers.

This drug freezone doesn't eat out the corns or calluses but shrivels them with out even irritating the surrounding skin. Just think! No pain at all; no soreness or smarting when applying it or afterwards. If your druggist don't have freezone have him order it for you—Adv.

HELPS WIN WAR

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.)

Truly Irish

A North of Ireland man wanted to send a telegram to a friend in a remote part of the island. The clerk told him the charge would be one shilling and sixpence.

"How do you make that out?"

"Sixpence for the wire and a shilling for delivery outside the radius."

"That be hanged!" retorted the Irishman. "You send the telegram and I'll write and ask him to call for it."

Breaking all Records

Right now—when milk prices are breaking all records—is the time to make new high records in milk production. It is surprising how effectively this can be accomplished by raising the health standard of your dairy cows.

The most prevalent cow ailments—Abortion, Retained Afterbirth, Bunches, Lost Appetite, Scours, etc.—arise from an impaired condition of the genital and digestive organs. Kow-Kure has remarkable medicinal properties that act directly on these organs, producing regular, healthy action. The cow thrives on Nature's food, and a full milk flow naturally follows.

An occasional use of Kow-Kure will prevent disease and pay for its cost a hundredfold. The best dairymen keep it on hand constantly. Feed dealers and druggists sell Kow-Kure, in 60c. and $1.20 packages.

Send for free book "THE HOME COW DOCTOR"—very useful wherever there are cows.

Japanese Forecast Direful Race Trouble for the World —Fear an Armed Collision

Belief that the next war will be the outcome of race prejudices is expressed by Yukio Ozaki, formerly minister of justice and a leading member of the constitutional party. Mr. Ozaki said that in his opinion the colored races, which steadily were developing their civilization, would demand finally the same treatment as the white races, and that the result would be an armed collision.

Mr. Ozaki recommended that Japan, acting on behalf of all Asiatic races, should introduce the racial and population questions for consideration and, if possible, secure a solution. In a country like Japan, where the population is increasing with alarming rapidity, he said it was but natural that the surplus population should try to obtain an outlet even by resorting to arms. From Japan's standpoint, said Mr. Ozaki, the racial or population questions were more important than President Wilson's "fourteen points," as laid down for a basis for Germany's surrender. These racial questions, he said, concerned the future of millions of souls in Asia.

Mr. Ozaki warned the Japanese not to develop the German system of state organization, which in the war had proved to be a mere machine for destroying civilization and for trampling under foot the rights of other nations and peoples. On the question of Japan's occupation of the German South Sea islands, Mr. Ozaki declared that the United States should dismantle her forts in the Philippines and Hawaii and that this would be more important for Japan than the taking over of the South Sea islands.

Chinese Children Sold as Low as Twenty-Five Cents —Markets Found in Cities

China's appalling poverty is traditional. The average man and woman goes through life with only an occasional relief from the pangs of hunger, says Frederick Moore in World's Work. Tens of thousands of people die annually from starvation. Mothers in the poorer sections of every town and village destroy female babies because they are unable to feed them. Sometimes the parents sell them into slavery or dishonor. In times of drought and famine a regular traffic is conducted in children generally by boat along the canals and rivers. The price goes at times as low as 25 cents for a healthy child, nothing being paid for a sickly one. Under ordinary conditions a strong young girl will bring anywhere from ten to a hundred dollars or more. In ordinary times a regular practice of stealing children prevails in some regions. They are conveyed, generally in boats, to the large cities and sold privately.

HA! HA! HA!

Husband's Description.
Bacon—I understand his wife has a position now?
Egbert—Yes. She's working at a ribbon counter in a department store.
Bacon—And does he call her his better half?
Egbert—No, his counterpart.

Sure Enough.
"I don't see no great use in poetry."
"It has its uses. When you see a word or a name in rhyme you know how it's pronounced."

Complete Action.
Papa—Bobby, if you had a little more spunk you would stand better in your class. Now, do you know what spunk is?
Bobby—Yes, sir. It's the past participle of spunk.

Making Him Feel Better.
"There's a man outside who says he's your tailor and wants to see you about a bill."
"Tell him I've gone to attend the funeral of a rich relative from whom I expect to inherit a great deal of money."
"Have you lost a relative, sir?"
"No; but that fellow has been here so many times I feel I ought to say something that will make him feel better."

Important Consideration.
"Would you say that she is good-looking?"
"That depends."
"On what?"
"On whether I was speaking of her face or to her face."

The Paramount Interest.
"Hunter tells me he's going to marry an heiress. I asked what her age was, and he couldn't say."
"My boy, it isn't her age Hunter is interested in; it's her heritage."

The Thorny Path of Love.
Gert—Mayne complains that her poet's love is like a red, red rose.
Myrt—Gee, that's funny; ain't it true and all that sort of thing?
Gert—Oh, yes, but the trouble is it makes him stick around.

13 Dollars— 13 Cents

When Swift & Company paid, say,—13 dollars per hundredweight for live beef cattle last year, the profit was only 13 cents! In other words, if we had paid $13.13, we would have made no profit.

Or, if we had received a quarter of a cent per pound less for dressed beef we would have made no profit.

It is doubtful whether any other business is run on so close a margin of profit.

This is bringing the producer and the consumer pretty close together—which should be the object of any industry turning raw material into a useful form.

This remarkable showing is due to enormous volume, perfected facilities (packing plants strategically located, branch houses, refrigerator cars, etc.), and an army of men and women chosen and trained to do their special work.

This, and many other points of interest, are found in the Swift & Company Year Book for 1919, just published which is brought out for the public as well as for the 25,000 Swift & Company shareholders.

The Year Book also represents the packer's side of the Federal Trade Commission investigation, upon which Congress is asked to base action against the industry.

Many who have never heard the packer's side are sending for the Year Book.

Would you like one? Merely mail your name and address to the Chicago office and the book will come to you.

Doing Her Bit
Mrs. Kowler—My dear, you will pardon me, but why do you allow the castors on your furniture to squeak so?
Mrs. Youngbride—I'm doing my bit, dear. You see I stand the squeak of the castors rather than use one drop of castor oil that is so badly needed for our airplanes.

Some Various Valentines by Frederick Moxon

I have had them in silks and in faces,
In velvet, and silver, and gold;
Some brodered with Cupids and Graces
All over the marginal spaces,
Wherever their winglets would hold.

I have had them with hearts pierced
by arrows,
Some singly, some skewered in pairs;
With cavaliers down on their mar-
rows;
With love-birds, and home-building
sparrows,
And suchlike pictorial snares.

I have had them with verses delicious
As ever were sugared with rhyme;
And others whose wit, suppositious,
Has left me for ever suspicious
Of "comics," at three for a dime.

But the best I find pasted on memory's page
Is this one you sent me at six years
of age:

"The villets red
The roses blew
The pinky sweet
An' sore yew."

California Prune and Apricot Growers, Inc. Win Damage Suit

Growers' Contract Sustained in Ven- tura Case

In the case of California Prune and Apricot Growers, Inc. vs. A. L. Drown in the Superior Court of Ventura, the Association won its first suit against a non-delivering grower. This is the first instance where the contract has become part of a court action, and consequently of considerable importance since this contract is one of an identical series on which all members are signed. During the course of the case the various terms of the contract and fulfillment by both parties were brought out in detail and the result completely sustains the contract in its entirety.

The corporation was represented by its attorneys, Sapio, Neylan and Ehrlich of San Francisco. During the course of two days occupied in the hearing of evidence and argument of counsel, every pertinent detail of the contract, from the time it was entered into by defendant and the corporation up to breach on the part of the defendant, was elaborately discussed. Many co-operative contracts have in the past failed to develop the substantial features necessary to the success of organized efforts; but in this case the California Prune and Apricot Growers are assured the greater respect of the trade, the producers and other interested parties. Their contract—the foundation of any co-operative organization—has been on trial and not found wanting.

High School Report.

The "drives" at the high school are still in progress!

The tinfoil and soft metal drive was fully as successful as the paper drive the previous week. The English Class tried to keep the pennant, but all in vain. The Drawing Class possess it now; although it did break the boys up in business buying gum to treat the girls so that they could get the tinfoil.

A box was in each room where flat-irons, lawn-mowers, tin foil, "silver," and gold, and stoves, and what not were accumulated.

Friday afternoon, Mr. Snyder from the salvage shop in San Jose, was at the school to appraise the articles. He gave an interesting talk on "salvage," and how the different materials as "junk" is used.

The following is the amount appraised: Freehand Drawing . . . $4.19
French . . . $3.41
English I. B. . . . $2.00
English I. W. . . . $1.30
Adv. Sewing $.27
Physics $.02
Typing $.26
Blacksmithing . . . $.10

Russell Crawford presented the pennant last Monday morning to Vincent Lopes, captain of the Freehand Drawing Class.

This week there will be an old clothes drive for the benefit of the Belgians.

Last Call

For Belgian Relief

Don't forget or under-rate the importance of the Belgian relief drive now in progress. This will be the last call, but please do not fail to respond. Leave suits, coats or underwear at the Coffee Club. Get the key at the drug store. If more convenient, take articles to Headquarters in San Jose, 7 W. Santa Clara Street.

Many Happy Returns!

A delightful surprise party was given by the friends of Mr. James Turner at his beautiful residence on Santa Clara-Los Gatos road, on Wednesday, Feb. 12, that date being not only Lincoln's birthday, but Mr. Turner's birthday also. The guests came en masse and the time passed pleasantly with music and dancing. A feature of the dinner was the huge birthday cake. During the dinner Mrs. C. E. Day responded to a toast in original verse which was very clever and highly enjoyed by all.

EFFECTIVE WORK

"Hey! You ain't got no address on that valentine."
"I know it. I don't want her to know who sent it an' she knows my handwritin'."

WHAT IF "ALL IS NOT WELL AT PARIS"? THE TASK IS HARD, BUT NOT IMPOSSIBLE

That the Paris peace conference has just about the most stupendous task that ever fell to the lot of fallible men is altogether too obvious to need emphasis, and the only excuse for mentioning it at all is the fact that certain newspapers, concerning which the best that we may say is that they are consistently Republican, seem to take peculiar delight in magnifying every difficulty and chuckling with glee at every indication of possible failure to accomplish the task of bringing some sort of order out of the present world chaos.

No sensible person is surprised if the sailing is not smooth, or if frequent snags obstruct the stream of the conference's business. But it is surprising that political considerations should move anyone to throw snags in the stream, or to indulge in expressions of satisfaction when the navigation threatens to become especially rough.

There are enough real causes for anxiety concerning the outcome of the Paris deliberations without manufacturing imaginary ones, such as, for instance, "the knowledge that the people of the United States have repudiated the leadership of President Wilson." There are plenty of people who "know a lot of things that ain't so," but people of moderately good sense will not worry much about President Wilson's popularity in the United States.

When the Fat Years Return

By F. C.

Ambulance 1-86, Western Front.

When the fat years return, and, rich and free,
You half forget, as men have ever done,
The price once paid for your security,
Thinking too much of fortune lost or won.

Too much of pride and laughter, food and ease,
Or of some public favor cheaply earned,
Oh, then turn back the page and think of these

Who gave their bodies for freedom to be burned—
For these lived, too; they, too, loved ease and laughter,
Sunlight, the green earth. All that you still keep

They had, and more—vision. If you come after
And dare forget them, buried so young, so deep,
And dare forget this faith for which they stood—

Ah, but you will not, being of their blood!
